

Controversies and Innovations in Perinatal Health: An Indiana Perinatal Network Forum

October 21, 2009

Dear IPN Supporter,

It is with great pleasure that the Indiana Perinatal Network (IPN) invites you to participate in the 3rd Annual IPN Forum, to be held March 18-19, 2010. The event, titled “Controversies and Innovations in Perinatal Health”, will examine diverse topics that impact the health of Indiana’s infants and mothers.

As a sponsor or exhibitor, you will have an opportunity to network and share information with a dedicated group of health care professionals. Our attendees, many of them leaders in their fields, come from across the state and are always eager to interact with exhibitors and sponsoring organizations. Your participation is vital to the success of this event and we would love to have your support.

The enclosed forms provide details about different levels of sponsorship. We would also be happy to work with you to meet your specific needs. If you have additional questions, please contact Sarah at the IPN office at 317.924.0825 x4222, or shundagen@indianaperinatal.org. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Larry Humbert, MSSW, Pg Dip
Executive Director
